SUGAR FELSENTHAL GRAIS & HAMMER LLP RETAINED AS COUNSEL TO CHELLINO CRANE, INC. AND RELATED DEBTORS

Chellino Crane, Inc., and its related debtors, have retained Sugar Felsenthal Grais & Hammer LLP as counsel in their chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings pending before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

Chellino Crane, Inc., and its related debtors (“Chellino Crane,” or the “Debtors”) have engaged Sugar Felsenthal Grais & Hammer LLP (“SFGH”) as counsel for their chapter 11 cases, pending before the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Illinois (“Northern District”). In this capacity, SFGH is charged with advising and assisting Chellino Crane in connection with the legal issues arising in the chapter 11 cases, including matters such as its debtor-in-possession financing, the reorganization of its business operations through a sale of assets or chapter 11 reorganization plan, the transfer or termination of unexpired leases, and other related matters as may arise.

The Debtors, based in Joliet, Illinois, constitute one of the largest crane operations in the Midwest, specializing in providing full service capabilities to niche markets such as refineries, power, and chemical plants. The companies sought chapter 11 protection on May 5, 2017 to reorganize their business operations. As of the petition date, Chellino Crane’s assets and liabilities were both in excess of $50 million, respectively, making it one of the larger chapter 11 cases to have filed before the Northern District in years.
